

NUTRITIONIST JOB DESCRIPTION

We have vacancies for Nutritionist to join our growing team. You will be tasked with helping our patients with nutrition diet as required by the patient or ordered by the doctor. To excel in this role, you should have an interest in taking care of patients and the ability to work with limited supervision keeping the patients' needs as your top priority

Nutritionist Responsibilities

Conduct nutritional assessment for all patient.

Carry out nutritional counselling and education on nutritional related disorders

Be able to prepare therapeutic feeds

Formulating diet plans for different patients

Review patient progress

Work as a part of a multidisciplinary team

Maintaining good records of patient care and condition.

Document patient medical progress and treatment, record notes to update medical condition.

Ability to communicate and treat patient with compassion.

Participates in all training and continuing education.

Follow all policies and procedure to maintain a safe home setting.

Nutritionist Requirement

Must have a diploma in nutrition and dietetics in a recognized institution.

Must be registered with Kenya Nutrition and Dietetics Institute (KNDI)

knowledge of professional standards and management of different special diets

Experience working in a health care facility a must.

Be computer literate.

Be a non-smoking

Medical examination certificate as outline by the company.

Must be able to pass criminal background check certificate of good conduct.

Must be able to provide references and complies with company privacy regulations by protecting confidential information.

Knowledge in French, Spanish and Italian is an added advantage

Driving skills and a valid driving license is an added advantage

Knowledge in French, Spanish and /or Italian is an added advantage for applicants in Malindi

All application to be sent to careers@zoyahomecare.com